Transportation Security Administration (TSA)

The client understands that the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) requires travelers to carry a government-issued identification card to board a flight. The client understands that the name, date of birth, and gender that appear on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on a traveler's airline ticket and in their booking records. The client acknowledges that their failure to comply with these requirements strictly may hinder boarding or an undue delay at an airport security checkpoint, causing them to miss their flight. The client further acknowledges that beginning on October 1, 2021, the Client must present a driver's license or another form of identification that complies with the Federal Real ID Act (see www.dhs.gov/real-id for more information).

- Visas and/or passports may also be attained by using a visa and/or passport service. Dreamworld Vacation Concierge would be happy to refer you to a service provider.

Travel Warnings Unsafe Conditions – Health and Weather

The client understands and acknowledges that travel to many parts of the world may involve the risk of various hazards to their health and/or safety, including but not limited to disease, crime, terrorism, and warfare.

Because each traveler's risk tolerance is different, Dreamworld Vacation Concierge cannot advise Client whether they should travel to any particular place at any particular time. Rather, to assist in making an informed decision, the Client should refer to objective third-party sources of travel information, such as that maintained by the U.S. Department of State <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/traveladvisories/traveladvisories.html>.

The Client is responsible for making themselves aware of the travel warnings, travel restrictions, and rules and understands the risks, accepting of these, and hold Dreamworld Vacation Concierge harmless for any known or unknown travel restrictions, death, illness, cancellations by suppliers, hotels, airlines, cruise lines, tour agencies or any other travel provider, financial loss, quarantining rules or measures put in place at airports or destinations you are traveling to and through.

The client further agrees to hold Dreamworld Vacation Concierge harmless for any financial penalties or fees imposed by the suppliers, hotels, airlines, cruise lines, tour agencies, or any other travel provider due to cancellations or postponements due to COVID-19 and agrees not to institute a credit card dispute or "charge back" to Dreamworld Vacation Concierge or any suppliers for services for said penalties or fees.

The Client is responsible for making themselves aware that additional screening procedures and restrictions may occur at airports and in public areas. The Client has been advised that these restrictions may include mandatory face coverings and/or temperature checks in airports, hotels, cruise ships, trains, or other means of transport.

The Client is responsible for making themselves aware that immigration, testing, quarantine or other procedures and restrictions may be put in place before or during your travels that may impede your ability to enter or exit your destination as planned.

The Client is aware that it is their personal decision to travel and, in doing so, takes full responsibility for their actions.

Travel Insurance

While travel protection is not required; we highly recommend the purchase of a policy. We have a professional responsibility to recommend that you protect yourself and your travel investment during your travel adventures. We quote and offer travel insurance on every vacation package that is booked with us. However, all questions about policy and coverage must be directed to the insurance provider.

If the Client opts to decline travel insurance, he or she accepts liability for cancellation penalties assessed by the travel supplier, or any out-of-pocket expenses related to incidents while traveling. Our travel advisors are not responsible for any damages, losses, or injuries occurring during the Client's travels.

Dreamworld Vacation Concierge strongly encourages the purchase of travel insurance. The client understands that they may purchase travel insurance to cover certain risks inherent in travel, such as supplier bankruptcy and the inability to travel due to a medical or personal emergency. The client can request travel insurance quotes, are allowed to purchase insurance, and the opportunity to read and understand the Terms and Conditions of the protection plans.

Regarding travel insurance:

- Many countries and travel companies have mandatory travel insurance requirements. Example: The insurance must cover personal injury and emergency medical expenses.
- Travel insurance protects you from any unforeseen events as most health insurance policies will not cover you in a foreign country. If you do not think travel insurance is for you, please look at your passport. You will see the U.S. State Department recommends reviewing your health insurance before leaving the country because most policies (including Medicare) will not cover you abroad. This means you will be responsible if you get sick or injured during your trip.
- The Client is aware that pre-existing conditions are ONLY waived if payment for the policy is received within a certain number of days of the initial deposit. This time frame is specific to the plan being purchased.

Dreamworld Vacation Concierge will NOT be responsible should you not purchase insurance and/or miss the deadline to purchase the insurance with the pre-existing conditions waiver.
